

McLean School
ENTERING GRADE 7 SUMMER READING

RIGHT VS. WRONG

HOW DO YOU DECIDE?

REQUIRED READING & ACTIVITY

1. Read Restart by Gordon Korman, Rise Up by Amanda Li, and/or A Tale Dark and Grimm by Adam Gidwitz. As you are reading, think about the challenges the characters face and how they decide between right and wrong.
2. Complete the Summer Reading Bingo Board on the next page. Bring your finished bingo board to school by September 6, 2024.

KEY VOCABULARY

- Dilemma: A situation in which a difficult choice has to be made between two or more alternatives, especially equally undesirable ones.
- Empathy: The ability to understand and share the feelings of another; to put oneself in someone else's shoes.
- Integrity: The quality of being honest and having strong moral principles
- Morality: The distinction between right and wrong or good and bad behavior.

RISING 7TH GRADE SUMMER

READING

Bingo

Read a work of nonfiction	Read a comic book or graphic novel	Read on the beach	Read a book someone lent you	Write an alternative ending for a book you read
Read a text of your choosing	Check out a book at your local library and enjoy!	Read under the shade of a tree	Write a review of a book you read	Read a book of poetry
Read a story/text to a person who is older	Read a sci-fi story		Read a mystery story	Read a story/text to a person who is younger
Listen to an audiobook on a car ride	Read a novel in verse form	Read a fantasy book	Listen to an audiobook while on a walk	Read a book that was adapted into a movie
Read about a culture you are unfamiliar with	Read about animals	Read a book with multiple authors	Read to your pet	Read on vacation

