

McLean School

ENTERING GRADE 9 SUMMER READING

DYSTOPIAN BOOK CLUBS

LEGEND SERIES BY MARIE LU

1. PRODIGY
2. CHAMPION
3. REBEL

THE DIVERGENT SERIES BY VERONICA ROTH

1. DIVERGENT
2. INSURGENT
3. ALLEGIANT

READ ONE OR MORE OF THE BOOKS ABOVE, THEN WRITE AN ESSAY WITH AN INTRODUCTION, THREE BODY PARAGRAPHS, AND A CONCLUSION THAT COMPARES AND CONTRASTS THREE CHARACTERS. BE SURE TO INCLUDE QUOTES FROM THE BOOK AND USE CORRECT SPELLING, PUNCTUATION, AND CAPITALIZATION. SEE OUTLINE ON NEXT PAGE.

Outline for Summer Reading Essay

Introduction

- Title and author of the book
- Brief summary of the book
- Description of tension between the characters you have selected

Paragraph 1: Protagonist (Main Character/Hero)

- Description of protagonist's traits
- Quote from text that supports description
- Connection between character's traits and character's choices
- Connection between character's traits and story's message/theme

Paragraph 2: Antagonist (Main Character/Villain)

- Description of antagonist's traits
- Quote from text that supports description
- Connection between character traits and character's choices
- Connection between character traits and story's message/theme

Paragraph 3: Minor Character (Sidekick)

- Description of minor character's traits
- Quote from text that supports description
- Connection between character's traits and character's choices
- Connection between character's traits and story's message/theme

Conclusion

- Review of the tension between the characters
- Connection between characters' conflict and story's message
- Connection between characters' choices and every day life